Saint Cosme 2006
Cotes-Du-Rhone Blanc

WS 90pts. - WA 89Pts - Tasting Notes -
The 2006 Cotes du Rhone white, which is a blend of 50% Roussanne and the rest Picpoul, Clairette, and Marsanne, is close to being outstanding.

In fact, it is a relatively amazing wine with good orange marmalade notes intermixed with lemon oil, honeyed grapefruit, and other citrus. It is medium-bodied, fresh, lively, and an exceptional bargain in dry white southern Rhone wines.

90 Points - Wine Spectator
"Plump, with alluring layers of mango, honeydew melon, pear and warm brioche. Stays bright and pure through the finish, with a lovely mouthfeel.

"Impressive".
